Prop H: Setting Clean Energy Deadlines; Studying Options for Providing Energy; Changing Revenue Bond Authority to Pay for Public Utility Facilities: NO

This is another attempt to impose public power on San Francisco after the voters have repeatedly voted "no." And this is worse than the previous measures in that it authorizes the Board of Supervisors to issue the revenue bonds to pay for the takeover without voter approval or other oversight. The city can't even make Muni run on time or fill potholes. What makes them think they can run a public utility?
